

Highlight Indicators

- The University conducted a webinar with a theme CALUMPangKamalayan
- CalumpangKatubigan 2.0: Why Life Below Water Matters.
- Establishing satellite marine stations/research centers in different coastal areas in Verde Island Passage in coordination with local government units and other concerned agencies.
- The "sheep" that can photoynthesisise
- Seaweed Beds as Transition Habitat for Coral Reef Fishes (SeaBaTH)
- The University Conducted The BSP (Balik Scientist Program) Series

Output, Impact, Collaboration

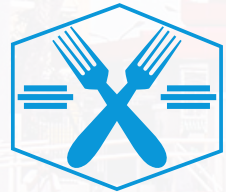

The center aims at providing research, teaching, and extension services of the Batangas State University on the marine resources and its marine environment in the Verde Island Passage.

Researches

4

Policies for Food Services

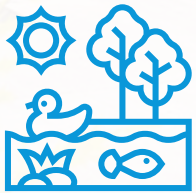

2

Educational Program

6

Supporting aquatic ecosystems through action

2

Water sensitive waste disposal

2

